SLiCE Engagement Programs: Cans Around the Oval

Cans Around the Oval is a Colorado State University tradition, where students, faculty, and staff partner with community members, local media, and area businesses to raise awareness about the facts surrounding the issue of hunger, as well as raise food and monetary donations. This event is Larimer County's Largest single-day Food Drive and benefits The Food Bank for Larimer County.

EL CENTRO

El Centro is energetic, welcoming, and inclusive with students who are excited about Colorado State University. We have resources to support personal, social, cultural, and academic needs to empower students and promote personal growth. We offer a place for discovering heritage, traditions, cultural awareness, and a diverse educational experience. Students can visit El Centro to relax, socialize, laugh, have dialogue, and build life-long memories. With dedication and motivation, we do all we can to assist students to be successful at Colorado State University. El Centro is a family, a “home away from home,” a place that provides a sense of belonging.

2017 Engaged Scholars Summit

Teacher Professional Development Workshop

Oct 09, 2017 | 10:00AM - 3:00PM | Cost: $30

History Colorado Center

1200 Broadway, Denver, CO 80203

Campus Compact Mountain West is excited to announce History Colorado as a co-sponsor of the 2017 Engaged Scholars Summit. History Colorado has been a long-time partner with CCMW through the Civic Health Network and has an extensive network of museums, including the Ute Indian Museum, the El Pueblo History Museum, Fort Vasquez, and many others across Colorado. The 2017 Summit, hosted on Indigenous People's Day, will focus on place-based engagement and scholarship that honors indigenous knowledge and learning. As a network of higher education institutions dedicated to the public good, we recognize the importance of elevating local knowledge and expertise alongside those of higher education practitioners. The Summit will explore:

- How do we prioritize local and indigenous ways of knowing as our communities navigate record population growth and attendant consequences?
- How do campuses approach research, teaching, outreach, and engagement that incorporate knowledge generated with/in local communities?
- How do campus and community partnerships recognize and build upon local or indigenous knowledge and the focus on place-based engagement?

Join us on October 9th at the History Colorado Center in Denver to explore these questions and hear from practitioners in the field as they've integrated indigenous knowledge and place-based engagement into their own scholarship and practice.

Session Proposals for the 39th Annual Professional Development Institute

The Institute for Learning and Teaching is pleased to announce the Call for Session Proposals for the 39th Annual Professional Development Institute. The PDI, which will be held on Jan. 8, 9, and 10, 2018 is a wonderful opportunity for all members of the Colorado State University community to come together, explore issues, share ideas, and gain new insights from one another.

The theme for the upcoming PDI is: "Leap into the New Year!" We hope it will inspire you to consider topics you might share. We welcome session proposals on a wide range of topics. Proposals will be accepted through Oct. 23, 2017. Additional information and the online proposal form can be found at <https://tilt.colostate.edu/proDev/pdi/>

If you have questions about PDI, please email questions to Debora.Colbert@Colostate.edu or call 970-491-2645

SUPPORT DIVERSITY AND INCLUSIVE EXCELLENCE

Your support of our inclusive excellence initiatives will impact the entire campus. We appreciate your contributions to our programs designed to create the best CSU possible!
